September 24-26, 2009 | Glen Rose, Texas

Bicycle Racers from around the block, around the country and even around the world are registering every day for The Texas Time Trials.

RACERS: Racers make the difference. Last year more than 125 Cyclists registered to compete in The Texas Time Trials. Representing more than 20 states and 3 countries, these athletes push their physical and mental skills, for a sense of pride that only comes from the self accomplishment of achieving a lofty goal. A challenging 26.5-mile looped course awaits outside of Glen Rose, Texas. Choosing from 5 different length races, cyclists will race each other as solo riders, members of a team, on a 2-person tandem bike and even specialty bikes like recumbents!

The Texas Time Trials is 5 races in one; all ending with dramatic finishes at 6:00pm Saturday, September.

1. The Tejas 500 is a 500 mile race with three different starting times. This race is also a qualifier for the prestigious Race Across America (RAAM)!

VOLUNTEERS: Volunteers add their own “special touches”....squirt guns, fireworks, wigs, noise-makers and pom-poms....you name it, we’ve got it! Having them on-hand throughout the 48 hours makes our race unique and special. With all the on-site camping, our racers have cheerleaders cheering them on all through the day and night

AWARDS CEREMONY: Saturday 7:30pm promises to be an enjoyable time for everyone. Racers socialize with friends, family, and each other and everyone is eligible for great door prize drawings!

RACE BENEFITS: The Texas Time Trials donates race proceeds to The Texas Bicycle Coalition.

RACE LOCATION: Glen Rose, Texas at the park just one driveway west of the Sonic Drive In. We are looking forward to providing more of our famous “Texas Hospitality.” Won’t you join us?

VOLUNTEERS: If you would rather watch than race, consider coming out for the free food, we can always use another volunteer.
